A Sackler Lecture Hosted by the School of Philosophy, Linguistic and Science Studies and the Departments of Philosophy and Classics

Glenn Most (Scuola Normale di Pisa)

Thales and the Beginning of Greek Philosophy

A Sackler Lecture Hosted by the School of Philosophy, Linguistic and Science Studies and the Departments of Philosophy and Classics

Tel-Aviv Lectures in Ancient Religions and Cultures (in cooperation with the Department of Jewish Philosophy and Talmud)

Hallel Baitner (Tel-Aviv University)

History and Ideology in Ancient Depictions of the Jerusalem Temple

Special Lecture Sponsored by the Classics Department

Antonio Clemente Domenico Panaino (University of Bologna)

The Narrative Pattern of the antagonist Steeds and their Chariot between Greece and Iran: Some Considerations about Aeschylus’ Persae 171-200, Agamemnon 900-940, and Plato’s Phaedrus 246ab
Tel Aviv Lectures in Ancient Law (in cooperation with the Department of Jewish History)

Athina Dimopoulou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)

A Mass Execution in Archaic Athens: in Search of the Historical and Legal Context

Tel Aviv Lectures in Ancient Law (in cooperation with the Department of Jewish History)

Mariagrazia Rizzi (University of Milano-Bicocca)

Market Legislation in Classical and Hellenistic Greece through Epigraphic Sources

Tel-Aviv Lectures in Ancient Religions and Cultures (in cooperation with the Department of Jewish Philosophy and Talmud)

Michael Johnson (Tel Aviv University)

The Intended Speaker in 1QHodayota and the Teacher Hymns Hypothesis