

Joint Workshop organized by:

Stephan Conermann, Youval Rotman, Ehud R. Toledano, Rachel Zelnick-Abramovitz

What is Global about Global Enslavement?

29-30 December 2019, Tel Aviv University, Gilman 496

Day One: 29 December 2019

10:00-11:15 Global, Comparative, Local: Competing Interpretations

Chair: Adriana Kemp

Michael Zeuske, “Slavery or Slaves as ‘Global and Globalizing’?”

Paulin Isnard, “The Greeks and the Others: Forms and Limits of Comparatism about Ancient Slavery”
(on the asylum institution in the ancient world)

11:15-11:45 Coffee Break

11:45-13:00 Population Movement and Forms of Labor Dependency (1)

Chair: Dror Zeevi

Reinhard Zöllner, “Maritime Interactions and Slavery in Premodern East Asia”

Christoph Witzernath, “Ransom and Early Modern Transottoman Competition for Loyalty: An Arab in Moscow”

13:00-14:30 Lunch

14:30-17:00 Family, Household, Enslavement (1)

Chair: Uri Yiftach

Antonio de Almeida Mendès, “A Local Social History of Slavery in the Portuguese Framework”

Douglas Cole Libby, “Family Connections: Slaveholding among African and Afro-Descendant Women in Eighteenth- and Nineteenth-century Brazil”

Hanne Østhus, “Slavery and Service in the Household: Non-European Servants and Slaves in Eighteenth-Century Denmark-Norway”

19:00-21:00 Dinner

10:00-11:15 Population Movement and Forms of Labor Dependency (2)

Chair: Hila Shamir

Gül Şen, “Between Two Spaces: Being Slave and Being Labor in the Ottoman Navy”

Karoline Noack, “Mobilization as Strategy of Power and Government vs. Stationary Production Methods: The case of the mitimaes in the Inca Cochabamba Valley (Bolivia)”

11:15-11:45 Coffee Break

11:45-13:00 Ideologies, Memories, Reflections

Chair: Benjamin Isaac

Roberto Hofmeister Pich, “The Ideology of Black Slavery: Philosophical, Juridical, and Theological Accounts by Seventeenth-Eighteenth Century Latin American Thinkers”

Alice Bellagamba, “Power Struggles, Memory Battles, and New Dynamics of Dispossession: The Twentieth Century History of West African Ideas of Slavery”

13:00-14:30 Lunch

14:30-15:45 Enslavement and Religion

Chair: Galia Sabar

Tamar Herzig, “From Tunis to Tuscany: Gender, Religion, and Global Slavery in the Early Modern Era”

Daniel Hershenzon, “Slavery and Religious Violence in the Early Modern Mediterranean”

15:45-16:15 Coffee Break

16:15-17:30 Family, Household, Enslavement (2)

Chair: Michael Zakim

Miriam Frenkel, “Between Mistress and Slave-girl: Domestic Slavery in Medieval Jewish Society”

Jane-Marie Collins, “Imagining Domestic Order through Relations of Racial Discord: Uma senhora brasileira em seu lar (Jean Baptiste Debret, c1839)”

17:30-18:00 Concluding Notes: The Organizing Committee and Participants

*Sponsored by: The Bonn Center for Dependency and Slavery Studies; Tel Aviv University: The Office of the Vice President, The Research Authority, The Zvi Yavetz School of Historical Studies,
The Chaim Rosenberg School of Jewish Studies and Archaeology, David Berg Foundation
Institute for Law and History, School of Cultural Studies, The Morris E. Curriel Institute for European Studies, The S. Daniel Abraham Center for International and Regional Studies*