The Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas

Seminar:
Theological Struggles in the Modernity
Identifying Protestantism and Modernity

Science and Orthodox Christianity: A Complicated Historical Relationship?
Efthymios Nicolaidis, Institute of Historical Research, National Hellenic Research Foundation

Evolution in Action: Julian Huxley's Political Biology at London Zoo
Marianne Sommer, Cultural Studies, University of Luzern

Making Rareness Count: Patient Activism and Politics of Knowledge in the War on Rare Genetic Diseases
Vololona Rabeharisoa, Centre de sociologie de l’innovation, Mines-Paris Tech PSL Research University

Transmission of Knowledge and Religious Difference in Pre-Modern Christian Spain
Mónica Colominas, Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin

Losing a Unique Female Voice – Margery Kempe’s Devotional Practices and the Paradox of Creating a Feminist Canon
Einat Klafter, Cohn Institute

Albert Einstein, Philosopher – Scientist
Hanoch Gutfreund, Former President, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

On Economic Relations in Social Epistemology – Ernst Mach’s Epistemology and its Socioeconomic Context
Monika Wulz, Center for the History of Knowledge, Zürich University and Federal Institute of Technology, Zürich

Keynote Lecture of “Civilizations of Knowledge: Critical Reflections” – A Conference in Memoriam of Bert Cohn
Robert Morrison, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, ME

Seminar:

Albert Einstein, Philosopher – Scientist
Hanoch Gutfreund, Former President, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

On Economic Relations in Social Epistemology – Ernst Mach’s Epistemology and its Socioeconomic Context
Monika Wulz, Center for the History of Knowledge, Zürich University and Federal Institute of Technology, Zürich

Keynote Lecture of “Civilizations of Knowledge: Critical Reflections” – A Conference in Memoriam of Bert Cohn
Robert Morrison, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, ME