יום עלייה - 14 ביוני 2005

משם פיתוחו

ירד: א餮ות שפירא, ז'נבריסת תל-אبيب

קשת מוסייקת

ברוח:

אנטרActivityResult, נשיא ז'נבריסת תל-אبيب
לאופיס בולו, יר ד' ז'נבר
משתתף, יר הוגה מהנהל של מרכז אלמו שודר

קשת מוסייקת

הרבה פיתוחו:

ב"ד דקר, האוניברסיטה העברית ברוסלב
מלוחמה עלולים השתיית: קומתה המשותפת ביבסיה
יומに戻י – 15 ביוני 2005

יומ_drviy – 16 ביוני 2005
International Conference

War, Holocaust, State: Sixty Years since the End of World War II

Tuesday-Thursday 14-16 June 2005

Sponsored by the NADAV Fund in partnership with Keren Hayesod - United Israel Appeal
Simultaneous translation available

Faculty of Law, Trubowicz Building
The Malka Brender Hall of Justice
Tel Aviv University campus

Wednesday 15 June 2005

Diaspora Museum, Bnei Zion Hall
Tel Aviv University campus

Tuesday 14 June 2005

18:00 - 20:00 Opening Session
Chair: Anita Shapira, Tel Aviv University

Musical Interlude

Greetings:
Itamar Rabinovich, President, Tel Aviv University
Leonid Nevezin, Chairperson, The Nadav Fund
Moshe Nativ, Chairperson, The Zalman Shazar Center for Jewish History

Musical Interlude

Keynote Address:
Benjamin Z. Kedar, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
The Historical Significance of World War II

10:00 - 12:00 First Session
Chair: Shlomo Biderman, Dean, Faculty of Humanities, Tel Aviv University

Shulamit Volkov, Tel Aviv University
Old and New Approaches to the Historiography of Nazism: The Double Perspective of Jews and Germans

Jeffrey Herf, University of Maryland
“The Jewish Enemy”: Nazi Wartime Propaganda and Its Diffusion to the Middle East

Dina Porat, Tel Aviv University
Factors Influencing the Developments in Holocaust Historiography in Israel and Abroad, 1975-2005

12:30 - 14:15 Second Session
Chair: Nurith Gertz, The Open University of Israel and Tel Aviv University

David Cesarani, University of London
Israel, the Diaspora and the Emergence of “the Holocaust” as a Cultural Construct after the Second World War

Ingrid Lomfors, Göteborg University
Reassessing the Bernadotte Rescue-Operation: The Holocaust and Swedish National Identity

Thomas Elsaesser, University of Amsterdam
The Burden of Representation: The Holocaust as Active and Parapractic Presence in German Postwar Cinema
15:15 - 17:00  Third Session
Chair: Eli Shaltiel, Sapir Academic College

Aviva Halamish, The Open University of Israel
The Holocaust as a Turning Point:
From Jewish Solidarity to Zionist Commitment

Yaron Tsur, Tel Aviv University
The North African Communities in the Diaspora
Perspective after the Holocaust

Arieh Kochavi, University of Haifa
Post-Holocaust Politics: The Western Powers and the Creation of the State of Israel

12:30 - 14:15  Fifth Session
Chair: Moshe Arens, Former Foreign Minister

Mark A. Raider, State University of New York at Albany
American Jewish Politics in the Post-Holocaust Era

Gil Troy, McGill University, Montreal
Ben Hecht and the Hebrew Committee of National Liberation: Postwar Democratic Triumphalism and the Domestication of American Zionism

Zohar Segev, University of Haifa
The Idea of a Jewish State in the Ideology and Activity of the American Zionists after the Holocaust

15:15 - 16:30  Sixth Session
Chair: Mordechai Bar-On, Yad Izhak Ben-Zvi

Evyatar Friesel, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
The Zionist Policy and the Zionist Leadership during and after World War II

Tuvia Friling, Ben Gurion University of the Negev
The “Road Map” of David Ben-Gurion, 1945-1948

16:45 - 17:30  Seventh Session
Chair: Zvi Yekutieli, Executive Director, The Zalman Shazar Center for Jewish History

Yehuda Bauer, Yad Vashem
Shoah and Genocide:
Then and Now

Thursday 16 June 2005

10:00 - 12:00  Fourth Session
Chair: Uri Blind, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Gabriel Gorodetsky, Tel Aviv University
The Soviet Support for the Creation of the State of Israel: Aftermath of World War II or Harsh Realities of the Cold War?

Yoav Gelber, University of Haifa
The Impact of the Cold War on the Political Orientation of Israel

Roni Stauber, Tel Aviv University
The Relations between Israel and West Germany against the background of the Cold War